Important Project YES Youth Center Rules

Respect Yourself

- Be the best leader you can be. Do your best.
- The Project YES Youth Center is a drug-free, smoke-free, alcohol free zone (inside and out).

Respect Others (Project YES staff, volunteers, and everyone else)

- No fighting. No hitting, tripping or pushing. No hurting other people.
- No bad words, name-calling, put-downs, or harassment of any kind. Absolutely no threats.
- No yelling or screaming.
- No weapons of any kind.
- No sexual activity.
- Participate. Do not be disruptive or rude.

Respect Property (Project YES' property and everyone else's property)

- You are responsible for your own belongings. (Please avoid bringing valuable items).
- No destruction of property (the house, furniture, yard, studio, etc.).
- The Project YES Youth Center is a community space for all of us. You are expected to clean up all activities you take part in.

I understand the rules at Project YES. I will follow them because I want Project YES to be a safe place for me and for others. I know that by following the rules, I will be the best leader I can be. I know that Project YES believes in me and what I can do.

PARENT/GUARDIAN PERMISSION:

I give my son or daughter permission to participate in programs at the Project YES Youth Center and to take related field trips in Lafayette on foot or by bus. I also give the Project YES Youth Center permission to have access to my child's grades, school attendance and referrals so that they may better serve my child's specific academic needs (this will remain confidential). I understand that Project YES maintains an "OPEN DOOR" policy where youth are free to leave Project YES when they want to leave. While Project YES maintains a safe environment, it cannot assume responsibility for my child once he or she leaves the premises.
